"For two years prior to their coming to the board, 2015 & 2016, there was almost $1.9 million in overtime paid. What troubled Forster and O'Callaghan was that there was no monitoring of overtime. There were no time clocks. An employee would simply turn his own time in. Everyone was on the honor system.

That meant a guy could just tell his supervisor how much overtime he worked that week and he would get paid. No questions asked."

Ken Cosentino: "Why is it that journalists have to take the lead on this? I truly hope that there's an investigation into this since it's obviously been going on for quite some time."

Xtian Printup: "This is incredibly disgusting news. Kudos to the two gentlemen who have stepped in & started to right this rotten ship!"

Max Teller: "This waterboard is truly amazing. No private business could ever get away with this crap."

Scott Nassoiya: "No wonder my water bill was so much..."

Chris Millette: "Umm, 1.9 million is a LOT of money for 2 years!!!! Smh!!!!"

Michael Paul Reilly: "The most Niagara Falls story ever."

Craig Simpson: "Where do I apply?"

MaryAnn Colangelo: "Back in 2015 when all the water pipes were freezing a family member had no water for over a month. Despite their protests they still had to pay a minimum water bill despite having no water. They never came back to fix the line problem. Reading this and thinking about how they wouldn't budge on that $25 bill sent to people who had no access to water makes me angry."

Neil Livergood: "There should be a criminal investigation started. If I were a Niagara Falls Resident I would contact the New York State Attorney General. If anyone submitted paperwork for overtime they didn't work that is a crime. That is punishable whether they have retired or not. Your comments here will need to be followed up. You want to stop government corruption lodge a complaint not with City of Niagara Falls but with the state attorney general."

Gary Broderick: "Wow, way to screw falls residents! Glad to see someone finally paying attention and putting a stop to it..."

Chuck Leone: "Dude should be made to pay all that back or go to jail for theft."

Geno Fucarino II: "Past and present employee's should be investigated and thrown in jail."

Sal Bianco: "No honor among thieves."

Brock Christin Biro: "NF corruption is real."

Michelle Deuble:
TRUTH! It's sad to see the amount of able bodied people in our community (especially the younger ones) with zero motivation or life goals but selfishly choose to have children.

Along people want to become dependent on government and providing incentives for people already on the system to stay on it was (and is) the agenda of part of our government because they believe that the only way to ensure votes is to make people afraid that voting for change is the same as sabotaging their way of life.

Ken Ziggy Pomichter:
It's like our city subsidizes dealers and users, thieves and gangbangers all because testing people would be inhumane?

It's insanity but insidiously manufactured to make any efforts to fix the problems into some kind of targeted assault on segments of the population. It's like one of those Saw movies where we're stuck in a trap and the act of trying to get yourself out just makes the danger multiply until disaster is the only foreseeable outcome. We've been screwed for a long time and I really think there's no way out at this point. I hope I'm wrong but it doesn't look that way.

As pointed out we have people that have made their only contribution to society as baby makers and as a person that had to go into homes and speak to people from all walks of life I can tell you that it is a gut punch to every person out there working to better themselves when you hear someone tell you how they are the third or fourth generation of a family that has existed solely off of the system meant to aid those people that can not provide because of infirmities or advanced age.

"It is because of many Niagara Falls Police Department initiatives – too many to list them here – that we can announce the City's crime rate is down 5%, robberies are down 10% over the past five years, and use of force incidents have continued to decline since 2014, for a total decrease of 53% over the past four years."

beat up I guess they don't count those."

Joseph James Kurek: "That's a bunch of bull every time I look in the paper or look on the internet somebody in Niagara Falls is getting robbed shot gunpoint

Frank Bauhm: "I just read the Gazette story on Dyster's speech in the "performing arts center." He gave the speech in the correct location because it was all an act. The Gazette photo of the applauding people? Those were city employees and department heads. Dyster considers the water board and the city to be like "quarreling lovers"? If they're the lovers then why are the residents the ones getting effed? Dyster only supported the idea of repairing the water treatment facility after the illegal sewage dumping hit the national media. He said the City and Seneca are "teammates." Really? Then why did he threaten to cut off fire protection from his Seneca teammates in 2013 and threaten to blockade the Seneca parking ramp in 2016? And he offers the city as a place for youth...because of a skate park. Don't mention the rising taxes, rising crime and shrinking population (and don't you mention it either, Gazette, or the mayor will stop sending you business). Dyster's speech wasn't delusional. It was far worse than that. Because he knew exactly what he was saying. It was cynical and misleading."

Michael Svida: "He mentioned it's down over the last 5 years, what about the last 12 months. For a small city there sure is a lot of gun crimes."

JoAnn D'Aloise-Bennett: "Of course the Gazette won't report all the robbery and shootings because they along with Dyster want you to think the city is doing amazing, what a joke."

Derek Clendening: "There wasn't this much crazy crime in my old neighborhood of walnut 19th a few years ago and now we have shootings on Hyde park lol looks like crime is spreading at an alarming rate."

Patricia Snyder: "There's your Common core Math at work for ya! Wow what a joke."

Rick Smith: "I guess daily shootings, hit and runs and burglaries don't count."

Dan Baldwin: "Of course there is less crime, it is because people are leaving Niagara Falls. Less people, less crime."

Anna M. Aquino: "Yeah right! Like I'm Dorothy and this is the fricken Land of Oz! Crime is down. What a joke!"

Kevin Farrell: "They use the one, two, skip a few method to count the stats."

Brian Eckerson: "Three shootings over the past five days. The city is safer than ever. Lol"

Jaime Lynn: "Did I read that right, he says crime and robberies are DOWN? Like, the opposite of up?"

Joel Dupras: "Crime down and train station riders up to a 1000 a day."

Kevin Hutchinson: "People that live here know the truth, Dyster the Shyster, is a fraud, a criminal, him being a liberal Democrat has nothing to do with it, he is just a bad dude, running the city into the ground."

Tim Huether: "Statistics are easily manipulated to fit any agenda. Regardless of any statistic, if you really wanna know about crime rates, ask the citizens if they feel safe in the city. Just because numbers on a spread sheet or presentation display are small does not mean the area is safe! Maybe the REPORTED crime numbers are down but most areas in this city are not safer unfortunately."

Patricia Snyder: "I think he is getting his numbers from the Niagara Gazette, cause you know they don't report 90% of the crimes in this city."

Mike Shepard: "Mayor Dyster, I would like to take you on a tour of this city's streets. I'll drive. Your car. OK?"

Donna Kraft Deters: "I live in the city! I have never witnessed a crime.. But then again. I don't go out after dark. I also don't hang around criminals."

Marc Charsley: "Could have fooled me with all the gun shots we keep hearing and peoples homes getting shot let alone the amount of murders. This city is the most dangerous per capita."

Louis Rizzo: "Never seen the city so bad. Reducing crime is a step in the right direction. But we are in rough shape."

Leo Zientara: "Of course it is. The police station dissuades people from filing theft reports on anything smaller than a car. Officers will tell you they're not going to find it anyway so it's a lot of paperwork for nothing. Go try it."

"There was a time when Niagara Falls was a bustling city, filled with entrepreneurs looking to make their mark. They saw that tourists came in droves and that money could be made by providing services and products for them.

Much of the tourism entrepreneurialism seemed to focus on the road that led to and away from the Niagara Falls State Park – Falls Street. My grandfather, Richard Touma was one such entrepreneur."

York state is purchasing properties as we speak under the assumption of development, but who is the development going to benefit? The city of NF? Or NYS parks? The personal ATM of NYS...ect."

Enzo Luciani: "Lackey and his lackeys destroyed this city. A guy from Oklahoma who thought he knew what was best for us natives."

Dan Dusher: "Unfortunately politicians for many years thought they could generate more money by "modernizing" the city. The closing of Falls Street for the convention center, the building of the winter garden, and the urban renewal efforts into the 1980's were all well intentioned, but clearly mistakes were made.

Main Street was a popular business area also, and I can remember shopping at the old Biers store before it was closed, the smell of the oil in the basement and the tunnel that ran across the street to a building that had been raised and replaced with what was the Hilton at the time (now the Sheridan).

Shopping on Main Street for shoes at Howard's and the multiple buildings that Jens had for shopping, all with multiple floors of shopping.

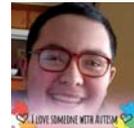

Main Street didn't die because of urban renewal though, it died because of the Summit Mall.

We can't recreate the old Falls Street.

The conference center and Sheridan are in the way of that happening, and the best we could hope for at this point would be shops that could be a mixture of tourist ones mixed in with year round places of business that would be popular with locals as well as tourists.

Still waiting to see the big investments that NFR will be making.

Purchasing and tearing down buildings does not count."

Tammy Wable-Santos: "Growing up in the 60's, this city just wasn't for the tourist, it was OUR downtown! We shopped in all the stores. Ate in the restaurants, morning lunch and dinner. We traveled the same streets to get home or go to work. That is what I want my city to become once again. Today, I hate driving thru the city, it is so depressing."

Debbie Shaughnessy: "I love our old city. We had so much to do then.$5 would get you into the movies and eat and drink cherry coke at Mr. S on Old Falls Street and a bus back to the Town of Niagara every Saturday."

Dan Baldwin: "What a shame, corruption and wanna be Politicians lining their own pockets led to the downward spiral of Niagara Falls.

All the families that lived here for the good jobs are gone. The jobs are gone and so are the people. Niagara Falls is sinking and will continue to sink until there's not enough people living here to even call it a city. Welcome to the Town of Niagara Falls! Head over the border and see what true prosperity is!"

Dan Davis: "The Urban Renewal Plan was doomed to failure.

They took what was hundreds of individual businesses over a 5 city block area and turned it into masses of Concrete and Glass nothingness.

AND they STILL haven't learned!!!"

Stan Zimmerman: "And yet the citizens continue to elect incompetent leaders that continue that downward spiral, a 3 month tourist season cannot support a 12 month budget, the time has come for a control board to come in before it is too late!"

Anthony Jones: "It's already to late. These solutions are all false hope. The crime and carelessness here would never allow us to be even a percent of what we used to be. In other words you can polish a turd till it sparkles. Doesn't change the fact it's a turd."

Michael Svida: "Very poor leadership / no planning what's so ever / and no vision. I remember very clearly when falls street was like the above photo. The city's problems begin when New York state took control of the electricity, New York state power authority and than took our waterfront for the parkway and directed tourist traffic to park in the state parking lot (hijacking tourist dollars) that would otherwise be spent in the falls street area...ect.

Another factor is Niagara falls industry suffered also because all of these factories stopped receiving cheap electricity because the power authority was under New York state control instead of Niagara falls, also the DEC was formed and putting policy's in place because of pollution and more factories started to close...ect.

The convention center idea came from mayor lackey along with urban renewal and the city started to eminent domain properties, before long falls street and surrounding areas we're demolished and the whole area looked like the Mojave desert, flat with nothing there.

The convention center was built but nothing else to support it, than the Hilton was built (now the Sheraton) but that actually didn't support it because people had to book rooms in Niagara Falls Ontario or buffalo to attend a convention in NF.

The point I'm trying to make is this city didn't have a plan and figure that if we build it they will come, the city build the convention center but nothing to support the convention center. Before the construction of the convention center city planers we're supposed to have in place at least 4 hotels, shopping and activities to support visitors (guests and their families).

50 years later we still don't have a plan and New

Dave Hathaway: "So he wants to put band aids on the potholes again. Just fix something right the first time for once."

Matt Lolo: "Everybody will mourn that big waste of money, absolutely ridiculous ! Stop using low-grade asphalt and we won't have these problems as often."

John Orefice: "I drove down town and on Goat Island. Sorry to say what a joke the streets are. All the Main Roads have pot holes that are ridiculous. Not only for the residents but the tourists. Fix the roads. If I was a tourist, I would not drive on our roads. No wonder we have a bad name. Do the job right, not with patches that look like crap and don't hold up. I'm really ashamed of the city."

Shawn Levick: "There are things we can do as a community and there are things we can within limitations accountability is something that needs to be addressed and I know the mayor probably can see this from his office but was so proud of the repair."

Tammy Craft: "No reason they can't go around and fill the big holes with rocks to soften the blow. They sure don't want to pay to replace your rims."

Josh Moccio: "That huge waste of money is like putting a bandaid on a bullet wound. Kinda like all development in this city."

Ryan Ross: "How about fix it the right way new roads. Are taxes are the 2nd highest in the nation."

Andrea Hilliard: "The only thing that stupid truck kills is your cars paint job!"

"According to sources in City Hall, the Mayor's office proposed a mammoth fee increase for tow trucks operating within the city who wish to be on an authorized tow list that Niagara Falls Police Officers use when utilizing a tow company's services."

Tow Truck Hijack: Niagara Falls Wants to Raise Rates Tow Truck Companies Pay to City - The Niagara Reporter

Laurel Sheehan-Wasik: "Like that's going to solve decades of bad decisions from the various politicians that have been elected to office only to become yet another disappointment. The Tow Truck drivers will only pass the rate hike onto the taxpayer...again. Another tax hike disguised as a fee. No improvement of service...just more money to blow on pet projects whose only purpose is to get the person re-elected, not to better the city."

Robert Russell: "It's things like this that make me very seriously consider running for election. I have a very simple solution to the budget problem: cut the fat from the budget. Slash salaries across the board, from the Mayor down. Consolidate duties spread out among multiple departments into one. Get rid of those that aren't pulling their weight. That alone would make a huge dent in the problem. Next, sit down with the Senecas and offer a compromise. The state isn't going to win there. They were stupid when they renegotiated the compact and signed without reading it. However, that puts Niagara Falls in a good position. Under the compact, we got about 6% of the slot machine revenues (state got 25, then the Falls got 25% of that). Negotiate a deal where the Senecas pay the city directly 10-15%. City wins, Senecas win, state loses (but who cares). If they agree, take the extra 4-9% and set it aside for a rainy day, or include it in the budget and use it to lower taxes to encourage people and businesses to come into the city. Real leadership starts at the top. It's time elected officials stop living a Salvatore's lifestyle on a McDonald's budget. When we are the highest taxed city in the highest taxed state in the country, with streets that put the roads of Beirut to shame, and a steadily dwindling population, something has to change."

I'll trust our officers and let them use their personal knowledge of the situation, their training and their judgement to handle situations like these. As you can see, it worked. The volatile situation was resolved peacefully."

in Niagara Falls I buy the Buffalo News.. But for the truth on the city's happening.. I read your paper.. I look forward to reading your thank yous.. You are the best.. Love it please never stop writing.. Please keep printing.. City official's hate your paper.. No names mentioned.. Mr Mayor D.. Oh my lol my bad.. And others in office.. Lol slipped again."

Linda Hamilton Barksdale: "The Niagara Gazette is "too far left!" I have not purchased one in years. The only thing worth reading are the obituaries and local sports. Any other news, one can find it on social media or online copycat AP. The online Buffalo News is also a good source. I previously read the Niagara Reporter but I don't get out often. I love it's true insight to what is going on in the community. As the youth says, "They keep it real" or, "tells it like it is." Also, would love to see the obituaries. Great job Niagara Reporter!"

Robert Brock: "Finally, a neutral news source. I've eliminated all of the left liberal Rags from my life."

Michael Mooney: "This newspaper is the only newspaper in the area, to provide local coverage about Niagara Falls. One of only a few things missing are, the obituaries.

It's a sad commentary, that I had to give up a twenty-something plus year subscription to the Buffalo News.

I refuse to buy the Niagara Gazette, because it is not worth the powder to blow it to hell (or worthy of any further comments).

If, The Niagara Reporter becomes more comprehensive in its coverage, of both Niagara Falls, (and the surrounding areas, including the Buffalo/surrounding regions) with other staff writers, I would be more than willing to pay what I paid for the Sunday edition of The Buffalo News.

The only reason I bought The Buffalo News was for the insight garnered, from a few local journalist's timely articles.

I don't need to read a bunch of AP wire stories, I can get that online.

The bygone days of, "The Courier Express", are seen as a bellwether in the pages of the Niagara Falls Reporter.

This ( Reporter) publication, has the profound propensity to outshine anything that has been published in the last 30+ years.

And it's in color!

Well, Kudos. Keep on improving this publication and you will have a following like no other in recent history.

Thank you for providing coverage that tells it like it is.

cult story in Albany over a year ago, now it's finally getting traction nationwide and even on the CBC! My Gramps and parents always bring your paper home from Tops!"

Patty Jo Soluri: "That's the way I get all my new in the Falls."

Sandy McAllister Masterson: "I look for you every week!"

Sharon M. Harshman: "Only truthful paper around!"

Restaurant Review: Harris Restaurant & Catering

Jamie DePetris
Food Expert/Critic

“Harris Restaurant and Catering” is located at 630 10th street right across from Memorial hospital. Did you know it was there? I didn't, but now couldn't be happier to have stumbled upon this hidden Niagara Falls gem.

When I walked in with my daughter we were greeted by a husband and wife duo that sat us down and just started serving us food. They went above and beyond, and not just with the food, but with their hospitality as well.

I made the mistake of asking what they suggested to try, and from then on the plates just kept coming out one by one.

First we were served steak and cheese fries, which were crinkle cut and topped with steak, green peppers, onions, mozzarella cheese and a savory blend of seasonings.

Next we were served fish bits (and that's exactly what they were!). Bite sized pieces of haddock with a perfectly seasoned corn meal flour mix on all four sides. I literally heard a crunch each bite.

Round three was a platter with their famous “soul burger” sliders. Home-made chicken fingers, bbq chicken and asiago cheese slider. Wow!! The soul burger was out of this world. The beef was seasoned and had specks of green peppers topped with American cheese on a buttered grilled roll.

I asked why they call it a “soul burger” and was told because it has “flavor!!” And boy was he right!!

Now I must say, chicken fingers normally do nothing for me and I never order them, but there was something about these that made me want more. They are homemade with a lightly seasoned thin and crispy crust (super good).

The bbq chicken slider was moist, tender and the combination of the chicken, cheese, the bbq sauce made this sandwich complete.

At this point I thought we were done, which would have been totally fine because we were stuffed! As it turned out though, we weren't done yet.

Up next, a fall off the bone bbq turkey rib. Yes, turkey rib (I never had a turkey rib).

Then out came chicken and shrimp Alfredo. This was phenomenal!

The Alfredo sauce was creamy just the right amount of spices to make it have a unique delicious flavor. Both the chicken & shrimp combination was so good.

The next plate had a pork rib, baked beans and yummy homemade mac & cheese. The rib was to die for and the beans had so many flavors with onions, peppers and ground turkey, and the macaroni and cheese did us good.

Just as we were ready to roll out of there, the owners came out with smirks on their faces and bombarded us with desserts. Banana pudding with chunks of bananas (by far my favorite) and chocolate cake topped with vanilla mousse (I felt like I died and went to heaven).

We also sampled a trio of cheese-

Rib, Baked Beans, and Mac & Cheese

Banana Pudding, Chocolate Cake, and Cheesecakes

cakes: chocolate, eggnog and plain. I'm partial to the chocolate, but my goodness it was all so good. This is a literal lunch HOUR!!!!

This to date was my hardest review because we had so much food and were showered with kindness and such a diversity of different food to try.

This is a family restaurant that started off catering over 6 years ago. The food is fantastic and ridiculously cheap.

They have everything here and they can cater an intimate dinner for 2 to any size function. If you take the time to try “Harris Restaurant and Catering,” I know this will become one of your favorite places.

By the way, after my experience we decided to use “Harris Catering” for my son's upcoming wedding! That should prove how much faith I have in them.

OSHA 10 & 30-Hour Courses Changed to Meet Safety Objectives

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) 10 and 30-hour courses provide information needed to help frontline workers, as well as foremen and supervisors, be more aware of health and safety hazards they may face and how they can be avoided. After receiving feedback that trainers were unable to cover the necessary job-specific hazards workers may face within the courses' time limits, OSHA decided to change some of the required teaching elements. The agency released new Outreach Training Program requirements on January 1, 2018 that went into effect on April 1, 2018. The highlights of those changes include:

- The Introduction to OSHA portion of the courses is now only required to last one hour instead of two.
- The optional topics for Construction and General Industry courses increased by one hour for both the 10 and 30-hour courses.
- Fall Protection is now required to last 90 minutes instead of 75 minutes in construction courses.

OSHA standards for construction have numerous training and safety requirements. Many of these standards specifically require employers to train workers on the hazards they may come in contact with, including job-specific safety concerns, general safety and health provisions and the need for personal protective equipment and fall protection. To help employers and workers meet these training requirements, OSHA created the Outreach Training Program, which was developed to improve workplace safety and health by providing access to OSHA-authorized trainers. Some employers, unions, and organizations require OSHA 10 and/or 30-hour training before workers ever step foot on a jobsite. State and federal regulators want to ensure that workers who need OSHA training get OSHA training. These regulators want to establish a baseline of safety training for workers before they reach the jobsite. OSHA-authorized training is an effective and reliable way to inform workers of the most prevalent hazards on construction jobsites.

Workers who go through outreach training are issued an official Department of Labor OSHA card, commonly referred to as an OSHA-10 or OSHA-30 card. Ten-hour training is highly recommended for all construction workers and 30-hour training is the recommended minimum for any construction employee with supervisory or safety-related responsibilities. Although Outreach Training courses are an excellent way to create a solid baseline of safety training, these courses alone do not fulfill the training requirements found in many OSHA standards. Employers are responsible for providing additional training based on the specific hazards workers may encounter on the job, such as the additional training requirements found in OSHA's silica standard. Because of this, many construction companies consider OSHA 10 and 30-hour training as only one essential part of their safety program.
